

Boost your career – go abroad!

The Marie-Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships (MSC-IF)

When: 18 July 2019, 10:00 a.m. – 14:00 p.m.

Where: Helmholtz Institute Mainz, Staudingerweg 18, 55128 Mainz, conference room 1395-00-131

In cooperation with the European Liaison Office of the German Research Organisations (KoWi), Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz (JGU) will host an information event on the Marie Skłodowska-Curie Individual Fellowships. At this event, speakers will introduce the most relevant aspects of the MSC-IF call 2019, and provide tips on writing a proposal. In addition, two MSC fellows and an evaluator will present their personal experiences. The event is aimed at German researchers willing to go abroad, and international researchers planning to conduct a MSC-IF project at a German host institution. In addition, administrative staff involved in proposal submission and management is welcome.

Individual Fellowships support the scientific career development and mobility of experienced researchers (PostDocs or researchers with at least four years of full-time research experience after their graduation) within Europe and beyond!
